

1 DELEGATE RALEY: Mr. Chairman, could I direct
2 a parliamentary inquiry to you?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: State the inquiry.

4 DELEGATE RALEY: There is a section in here on 5 education which mandates the money in the budget which 6 Judge Sherbow has already explained. There is, of course,
7 another side of the coin, and I think that what is in here
8 has a great impact on what will be in the general provi-
9 sions concerning education.

10 Now, I, for one, don't think, from what I
11 understand is in the general provisions, that this State
12 could accept both of these articles. So my question to you
13 is that if this Convention should accept the majority
14 committee's report on general provisions in education, then 15 I think that this makes an entirely different picture on 16 this section here; and I would like to ask you, sir, if 17 we would be able to have the opportunity to submit an 18 amendment, in the event that the general provisions majority
19 report is accepted?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I would assume that by that time
21 the Committee of the Whole would have reported with
